2026 AUTHORIZATION REFERENCE

The below prior authorization code list is a reference to support identifying those services that require a prior authorization. This is not a comprehensive list as new service codes are released frequently. If a service is identified in the above grid of services as requiring a prior authorization, but is not reflected below, the requirement for prior authorization remains. For example, if skin substitutes are noted as requiring a prior authorization a specific code is not reflected in the reference below, the requirement for prior authorization remains.
